AMBASSADOR GREW URGES JAPANESE STOP BOMBINGS

U. S. ENVOY ORDERED TAKE ACTION BY STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS

WASHINGTON, June 9.—(AP)—Ambassador Joseph Grew at Tokyo asked the Japanese government today to take urgent measures to stop bombing of non-combatant property in China.

The state department said Grew was instructed to appraise the Japanese foreign office of an attack of Japanese planes upon the Lingnan University campus yesterday.

Grew, the announcement said, told the Japanese that three bombs were dropped on the edge of the school's athletic field 200 yards from residences of Americans at the university.

There were 37 Americans at the university at the time.

Grew's instructions were to tell the Japanese that the university officials were clearly removed from the scene of military operations.

Grew reported back swiftly that he had made his representation and had asked "urgent measures" against recurrence of the attack.

Over Thirty Million Homeless.

SHANGHAI, June 9.—(AP)—War's fury today was causing a mass migration from three great cities, adding to the millions of refugees already homeless as a result of Japan's gigantic sweep across China's good earth.

Relentless bombings since May 28 at Canton had caused an estimated 500,000 to flee to the coast and the interior, packing all available conveniences.

Thousands more were fleeing south and west from Chengchow, junction point of the East-West Lunghai and north-south Peiping-Hankow railways, which was under the shadow of Japan's advancing army.

Still other thousands, chiefly women and children, were walking riding and taking to boats from Hankow, provisions since May 28 at Canton had caused an estimated 500,000 to flee to the coast and the interior, packing all available conveniences.

CRIMINALITY IS OVERLAPPED BY INSANITY ACCORDING TO WARDEN ALCATRAZ PRISON

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE Associated Press Science Editor

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—(AP)—James C. Johnson, warden of Alcatraz, the federal island penitentiary here which houses Al Capone, Machine Gun Kelly and other desperate men, today pictured criminality as it looks to him and said it is "overlapped by insanity."

The warden, who seldom talks, presented a 6,000-word paper to the American Psychiatric Association. He gave 10 case histories of prisoners, but no names. The 10 appeared not to be among Alcatraz notorious band.

He drew a word picture of what the warden looks at as he sits waiting for a criminal who has cracked to enter his office for medical examination.

"As hospital attendants or guards bring the patient to the door," he said, "sometimes it makes a rather pathetic procession."

"Some are quiet and clean, others are untidy, unclean and violent. Some of them cut capers and if it happens to provoke a laugh, they laugh at themselves as if they were happy in their tragic foolishness. Those with delusions of persecution are often difficult to handle."

"The prison gets the drainings of society," he said. "These men, Warden Johnson said, include 'latent, unrecognized insane, borderline cases, and numerous variants, deviates, defectives, abnormal, sub-normals, neurotics, epileptics and psychopaths.'"

THIRD KIDNAPED BOY FOUND DEAD

Charles Mattson
Peter Levine
James Cash, Jr.

For the second time this year a boy-victim of kidnapers, James Cash, Jr., of Princeton, Pa., on right, was found dead. He was snatched from his home within twenty-four hours of the time the mutilated body of Peter Levine (lower left) was found on the beach near New Rochelle, N. Y. The father of the Cash boy paid $10,000 ransom for the safe return of his son, but the attempt was futile, although the money was recovered Thursday, Charles Mattson, (upper left) son of a Tacoma, Wash., doctor, was kidnapped several months ago, and later found dead. Federal authorities announced this week more than 16,000 suspects had been checked by the FBI in this case alone, and it remains unsolved.

Cotton Prices Up Over Dollar Bale On Active Trade

NEW ORLEANS, June 9.—(AP)—Cotton prices advanced slightly more than one dollar a bale here today on active trade and commission house buying and covering by shorts against a scarcity of contracts.

Reports of heavy weevil emergence in parts of the belt which aroused fears of damage to the new crop and Washington advice saying the government planned to purchase a considerable volume of textiles for relief purposes were the principal factors behind the buying movement.

July contracts advanced to 8.33 cents a pound, Oct. to 8.35, and Dec. to 8.40, or $1.10 to $1.20 a bale.

Trading tapered off after the demand had been supplied but selling pressure was absent and prices hovered near the highs at the start of the fourth hour.

Hotel Guests Are Forced to Climb Stairs By Strike

PORTLAND, Ore., June 9.—(AP)—Marching pickets and bewildered stair-climbing guests today marked a strike which drew 1250 hotel employees from their work in eight of the city's largest hotels at the opening of Portland's annual rose festival.

Elevator operators, switchboard girls, bellhops, dining room and kitchen employees, clerks, chambermaids and porters—all joined the walkout to force union recognition from employers.

No hotels were closed and all attempted to keep up a semblance of service, with managers handling registration desks, carrying baggage and preparing rooms.

About 750 of the hotel's 2,000 employees were not on strike.

A union statement declared a strike election had been ignored by operators whom they accused of being "unfair" in "refusing to live up to their agreement to arbitrate and in asking the unions to hold an election to prove their right to exist as functioning organizations for collective bargaining."

A statement signed by the picketed hotels—the Benson, Portland, Heathman, New Heathman, Roosevelt, and the Hotel de Ville—said the strike was "a serious blow to the city's tourism industry."

Note Writer Is Held But FBI Refuses To Say Case Is Closed

MIAMI, Fla., June 9.—(AP)—The body of kidnapped James Bailey Cash, Jr., was found today and G-men announced the recovery of the $10,000 ransom and the arrest of a suspect but indicated the case still was not completely solved.

"We have the kidnaper or one of the kidnappers," said J. Edgar Hoover, director of the federal bureau of investigation, in discussing the arrest of Franklin Pierce McCall, husky 21-year-old truck driver who he said admitted writing the three ransom notes and collecting the money.

Hoover declined to say whether authorities were seeking possible confederates. He also turned aside questions as to whether any others were in custody.

"The investigation will actively continue," Hoover announced, adding that the FBI field office in Princeton, however, would be closed.

Evidence Reveals Would-Be-Captor Planned Extortion

OXFORD, England, June 9.—(AP)—Testimony that a would-be kidnaper intended to extort huge sums from Viscount Nuffield, millionaire automobile manufacturer by threatening him with an "operation without an anesthetic" was introduced today at the hearing of John Bruce Thornton, Thornton, 50, is charged with instigating Major Arthur G. F. Ramsden to help him abduct Great Britain's "Henry Ford."

Major Ramsden, testifying against Thornton, said the latter told him he would "make a display of surgical tools" before the millionaire after the kidnapping had been carried out and thus induce him to write a letter arranging for a letter of credit for 100,000 pounds (about $500,000).

If Nuffield "did not play the game," Ramsden said, Thornton wanted to take the peer out to sea on a yacht and "dump him."

'California Fog' Fails to Dampen Spirits Campers

"A little damp possibly—but we are happy about the whole thing," Mrs. Gladys Kinsolving, Corsicana Camp Fire executive proclaimed today to the world Thursday when asked if it rained at Camp Wanica.

Approximately 100 children and counselors are attending the annual outing provided by the Camp Fire organization at Wanica, attractive campsite eight miles southeast of Corsicana.

"When the rain started Brother Noah could not have been busier during the now famous flood of ancient times," the executive said. "But it was a fine experience for the children, everybody had a grand time and came through with colors flying and spirits high."

"There was absolutely nothing to worry about and it will take something more than a 'California fog' to cause these kids any inconvenience—in fact they just loved it and outside of camp routine being slightly disrupted for a short time everything is moving along smoothly today as if nothing had happened," Mrs. Kinsolving smiled.

All Camp Fire officials are unanimous in their opinion that the camp is the best in the history of the organization and is being conducted in a manner satisfactory to all concerned.

Governor Allred Urges Observance Traffic Safety

AUSTIN, June 9.—(AP)—Observance of traffic safety week in Texas beginning June 12 was urged by Governor James V. Allred in a proclamation today.

He said in part:

"To the end that the citizens of Texas may be mobilized into a gigantic offensive in every community of the state against the common enemy of traffic accidents, state organizations have joined with the governor's traffic safety committee in sponsoring a traffic safety convention in Fort Worth June 15."

"Every town in the state is invited to send representatives."

THIRD TIME MONEY PAID IN ATTEMPT TO SAVE VICTIMS

WASHINGTON, June 9.—(AP)—Three times in recent years kidnapers' ransom demands have been met in vain.

Testimony at the trial of Bruno Richard Hauptmann indicated that Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., already lay dead in a shallow grave when John F. Condon, acting for Colonel Lindbergh, turned over $50,000 for the youngster's safe return.

The second ransom paid in vain was $50,000 raised by Mrs. Charles S. Ross of Chicago, Ill., for the return of her husband, a retired greengrocer and mail carrier who had been kidnapped September 25, 1937.

The payment was made October 8. Two days later the elderly man was killed in an underground hideout near Spookey, Wis. John Henry Seadland is awaiting execution for the crime.

The body of little Jimmy Cash was found today near Princeton, Pa. The lad's father had delivered $10,000 to a spot designated in ransom note, and hoped to get his boy back alive. A 21-year-old truck driver, Franklin Pierce McCall, federal agents say, confessed to collecting the money.

In these three cases, all or a part of the ransom money has been recovered.

Congratulations

WASHINGTON, June 9.—(AP)—Attorney General Cummings said today that Director J. Edgar Hoover and his associates in the Federal Bureau of Investigation performed "a brilliant piece of work" in the Cash kidnapping case. He wired congratulations to Hoover at Miami, Fla.

SOUTHWESTERN AND MOUNTAIN STATES WAGE DESPERATE WAR ON GRASSHOPPERS, CRICKETS

DALHART, June 9.—(AP)—Flying squadrons of men and machines mobilized here today for a final fight—organizing along military lines—against a threatened scourge of grasshoppers in the Texas Panhandle.

Ted Houghton, co-ordinator of the four-county conflict, announced at noon more than 100 trucks furnished by the Texas National Guard and highway department, will be ready tomorrow to help exterminate the insects in Dalhart, Hartley, Sherman and Moore counties. The trucks are in charge of National Guard officers.

Scouts will move ahead of the main force of exterminators to locate swarms. The poison crews will follow, and farmers, ranchers and the boys will turn the main forces as mop-up squadrons.

Trucks will be available to haul sawdust from Springer, N. M., and bait from the mixing stations to the fields. Individual counties will ration and house the men in the field. The state will furnish gasoline and oil for the trucks.

Houghton spent the morning determining the trucks needs of each county. He will assign vehicles at Amarillo. He said he planned to hold back part of the trucks to use as a flying squadron to meet any emergency.

The four counties were rushed into construction on 45 additional mechanical spreaders. Houghton hoped to have 300 machines ready by Saturday.

MEMORIES AND MEANINGS OF GARDEN OF GETHSEMANE *

One Traveler's Recollections of a Moonlit Night on Olivet—Some Who Sleep Away the Hour of Significance.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

One night three of us, Americans, went out from our Jerusalem hotel, near the Jaffa Gate, and, crossing the city, and the Brook Kedron, we climbed the steep road up to the crest of the Mount of Olives. Several times we paused to look back upon the city at our feet. It was, we know, upon just such a night, with the effulgence of the full moon bathing the landscape, that our Lord journeyed for the last time to this hillside which He loved, to muse upon the city of His desire.

There lay Jerusalem, softened and beautified by the moonlight. All the ugliness which sunlight reveals was gone. Near us, on the site of Solomon's Temple, rose the Dome of the Rock. Other mosques with cupolas, and the two German church towers, and the dome of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, were clearly traceable. The eastern walls were visible; and here and there in the city a feeble light shone. A beauty as of charity enveloped it all; and to the visitor came a haunting memory of the prophets, saints and martyrs; the soldiers, kings, and travelers, who had felt the fulfillment of their hearts' desire in viewing the Holy City from this hillside made sacred by the supreme experience of the Redeemer. Something of His yearning and compassion for this city of David welled up toward it, and all the other cities which today shelter blindness and unbelief and sin and perplexity. Over the spirit there steals a sense of confidence; verily, the travail of His soul shall be satisfied.

A Garden of Fellowship. Once this hillside echoed to the shouts of the Roman soldiers and the Jewish temple police, as they awaited the capture of the Master. Formerly, it had been jubilant with the hosannas of the multitudes who acclaimed Him as Conqueror. Amid the shadows of these rocks the frightened disciples scurried for cover at the hour when Jesus needed them most. But above all else the memory recurs that this friendly hillside was Christ's favorite place of prayer. Here He met the Father; and here all suffering spirits meet Him, in the Garden of Fellowship. In her earlier years, Elia Wheeler Wilcox saw this clearly:

"In golden youth, when seems the earth
A summer land for singing mirth;
When souls are glad and hearts are light,
And not a shadow lurks in sight,
We do not know it, but there lies
Somewhere, veiled under evening skies,
A garden all must sometime see—
Somewhere lies our Gethsemane.
"With joyous steps we go our ways,
Love lends a halo to our days,
Light sorrows sail like clouds afar;
We laugh, and say how strong we are.
We hurry on, and hurrying go
Close to the borderland of woe,
That waits for you and waits for me—
Forever waits Gethsemane.

"Down shadowy lanes, across strange streams,
Bridges over by our broken
dreams,
Behind the misty caps of years,
Close to the borderland of woe,
The garden lies; strive as you may,
You cannot miss it in your way.
All paths that have been, or shall be,
Pass somewhere through Gethsemane.

"All those who journey, soon or late
Must pass within that garden's gate,
Must kneel alone in darkness there,
And battle with some fierce despair.
God pity those who cannot say,
'Not mine, but Thine,' who only pray,
'Let this cup pass,' and cannot see
The purpose of Gethsemane."

The Tragedy of Time. All time that has been and will be focused its supreme tragedy upon this gray hillside. Our Lesson story itself is more important than any comment. I quote the Weymouth Version: "So they came to a place called Gethsemane. There He said to His disciples, 'Sit down here till I have prayed.'"

"Then He took with Him Peter and James and John, and began to be full of terror and distress, and He said to them: 'My heart is oppressed with anguish to the very point of death; wait here and keep awake.' "Going forward a short distance He threw Himself upon His face and prayed repeatedly that, if it was possible, He might spare this time of agony; and He said: 'Abba! My Father! All things are possible for Thee; take this cup of suffering away from me; "

FRANK DISCUSSION SOCIAL IMPORTANCE OF SYPHILIS GIVEN

ONE OLDEST KNOWN DIS-EASES EASILY CURED IF KNOWN IN TIME

An interesting, informal and frank discussion of the social importance of syphilis was given by Drs. E. H. Newton, Leslie Kelton, Jr., O. L. Smith and R. C. Curtis at Wednesday's luncheon meeting of the Rotary club at the Navarro Hotel. They analyzed the contraction, symptoms through its three stages of development, the length and type of treatment, and the widespread prevalence of the disease.

Drs. Newton, Kelton and Smith had charge of today's program, and Dr. Curtis, president, appointed Jim Nick Garitty, Carl Parsons and George Swan as next week's committee.

Dr. Newton, opening the discussion, said syphilis is one of the oldest known diseases, and added the medical profession knows its source, an efficacious treatment, but because of the secrecy which has surrounded the disease in every day discussions, it has gotten a strong foothold in the United States. He said until the last year or two there has been little organized effort to stamp it out, but recent publicity has aroused the public, and the fight has come into the open with the establishment of free public clinics.

Many Servants Have Disease. Dr. Newton said syphilis is considered a venereal disease, but it is contracted only through inoculation through a broken skin. It is not communicable in its latent stage, he said. Dr. Newton estimated that 50 per cent of the menial servants have the disease, but only a few of them can pass the disease on, because it is probably in its latent stage. He continued that syphilis is one of the most insidious diseases known, one reason being that except for a few apparently minor skin disorders it can pass into its third stage almost without the knowledge of the patient.

In its third stage, Dr. Newton said, the disease may lay dormant for years and then may effect all different parts of the body and the mind. He said if cities had the proper public clinical facilities the disease could be cut down to a great extent, and with such facilities it could be detected and treated in its incipency.

Alarming Number Cases. Dr. Kelton told of the alarming number of cases of syphilis in Dallas (but added in his opinion the percentage was the same in every other town), and told of the war being waged on it there. He told of the two clinics which treat 2000 cases a day. Dr. Kelton called attention to historical references to the disease, and then outlined the various types of ways it may be contracted.

He said the disease may be stopped permanently if treated in its first stage, but if it goes into the second stage it must be treated "constantly and diligently" for two or three years before it can be stamped out. If it is not cured in its second stage, he said, the patient may go for 20 or 30 years without a symptom, and then will develop ailments in their brain, lungs, stomach, eyes, joints, nervous system and blood vessels.

Remarks upon the subject were made by Dr. Curtis and Dr. C. L. Smith, after a number of the Rotarians asked questions about the disease.

ADVERTISE BIDS COMPLETE GAP IN HIGHWAY 22 WEST

WILL GIVE CORSICANA ALL-WEATHER ROAD TO HILLSBORO

Bids were advertised for in local newspapers Wednesday for the construction of 4.889 miles of 20-foot concrete pavement on Highway 22 in the extreme western section of Navarro county. The bids will be opened by the State Highway Commission, Tuesday, June 21. The stretch of road involved is the present gap extending from Frost to a point 400 feet west of the Hill-Navarro county line in the vicinity of Mertens. Other highway improvements are due in Navarro county this summer.

This gap is scheduled to be rushed to completion this summer and will give an all-weather road between Corsicana and Hillsboro, connecting the concrete pavement extending from Corsicana to Frost with the all-weather road from Mertens to Hillsboro.

Bids for dirt and drainage structures on Highway 22 for approximately 11 miles from Hillsboro to Frost will be opened also on the calendar for awarding at the same meeting of the commission.

Work is going forward at a satisfactory pace on the construction of the Chambers Creek bridge on Highway 22 southeast of Eureka. Improvement of the road has also been authorized for this summer when the bridge is completed.

It is understood extensive improvements are slated on the Highway 31 road from Ward bridge westward to the maintenance department is placing materials on the ground for a new wooden bridge at the Ward Bridge crossing. Much rock has been used in the widening of the 8-foot slab seven miles westward from Ward Bridge.

Future Farmers At Barry Plan Program For Next Season

'More and Better Livestock for Our Community' will be the theme of their plans when the Barry Future Farmers begin to work out their plans for next year's projects. This group of farm boys, an organization taking shape in the community with R. E. Burleson as their adviser, can see a very definite place for livestock in the farming program of their community and they plan to put on such good demonstrations with their projects that more adult farmers will see the possibilities of livestock on their farms and as a result fit them into their programs.

Other plans for the Barry Future Farmers that are in the process of being formed for this summer's activity are the election of next year's officers, attending the area summer encampment at Lake Worth, and definite business for several local meetings.

Filling Station Is Nearing Completion

KERENS, June 8.—(Spl.)—The new stucco garage and service station being built by E. K. Howell, is nearing completion.

This building on Highway 31, just opposite the First Methodist church, when completed will be one of the most modern garages in this section of the state, and will be a distinct addition to the city. Plans for a formal opening will be announced later.

Ysleta Girl And Jack McNutt Married In Recent Ceremony

The following account of the recent marriage of Jack McNutt, son of Ysleta, son of Mrs. Ysleta, to Miss Elizabeth Duncan, also of Ysleta, will be read with much interest by Mr. McNutt's host of Corsicana friends.

Jack McNutt, son of Mrs. Ysleta, son of Mrs. Ysleta, to Miss Elizabeth Duncan, also of Ysleta, will be read with much interest by Mr. McNutt's host of Corsicana friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowning in white, and carried a full skirt of white lines and full skirt.

Her finger tip length tulle veil caught on the head with orange blossoms designed in halo effect. Mrs. McNutt wore a little finger ring at the time.

Maid of Honor.
Miss Jane Duncan, who attended her sister as maid of honor, was gowning in yellow embroidered organza and wore flowers in her hair.

The two junior bridesmaids, Nancy Duncan, sister of the bride, and Betty Delaney, wore long flowered dresses in pastel shades, and ribbons in their hair. They carried the same type old fashioned bouquets carried by the maid of honor.

Walter Milner attended as best man. The ceremony was solemnized before an improvised altar in front of the fireplace, which was banked with white flowers. Tall white candles were lined across the mantel.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. F. J. McLaughlin at the piano, and solos given by Mrs. E. J. McLaughlin, Miss E. J. McLaughlin, and Eugene Jordan, who sang.

Reception Held.
Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held to which a large group of friends were invited.

Mrs. Duncan, mother of the bride, was gowning in a flowered chiffon dinner dress and, with Edna Duncan, assisted the couple in receiving.

Mrs. Guy Field, W. H. Peterson, L. F. Wolcott, and Frank Hughes presided alternately at the punch bowl. Mrs. F. W. Cooper and Mrs. J. L. Wadley greeted the guests, and those who assisted in serving included Mesdames C. S. Kerr, M. Scarborough, John Yoe, Helen Delaney, and Clyde Wadley.

For her going away costume, the bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories.

On their return from a three months' honeymoon trip, the couple will live in Ysleta where Mr. McNutt is athletic director of Ysleta High School.

ENLISTED MEMBERS BATTERY D FORM OWN ORGANIZATION

The new club had its first meeting Tuesday night and elected officers. The following enlisted men of the organization were elected:

Precinct 1, Place 2, and registrar for Precinct 1, during the month of May:

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Berry, Streetman, May 27, a son.

Gaston Lee, Corsicana, May 24, twin sons.

Lawrence Richard DeMoss, Eureka 1, May 30, a son.

Harvey Lee Bush, Alma 1, May 13, a daughter.

As the first step in achieving its purpose the Enlisted Men's Club will go on an overnight road march and bivouac to Waco June 12.

The officers of the organization have planned to make this a two-purpose trip. One to give the truck drivers and men of the organization more training for the longer road marches they will be taking during the army maneuvers in Southwest Texas this summer, and the other purpose to provide recreation and fellowship among the members.

Captain Randolph Robinson is planning on securing a place at Lake Waco for an overnight camp. If he succeeds in securing this place the men of the club will have an excellent place for fishing, swimming and boat riding. This overnight camp will be only one of the many trips planned for the new club.—Secretary of the Club.

Glasses Purchased By Church Circle

Three pair of glasses have been purchased by Mrs. T. E. Hewitt, Circle of the First Methodist church, to be used by children unable financially to purchase the glasses. It was reported today by Mrs. H. C. Brown, member of the board and local representative of the Texas Society for Crippled Children.

Dr. Herbert E. Hipps, Marlin, examined five children here Monday prior to his lecture before the Masonic bodies of Corsicana. It was reported by Mrs. Brown. Mrs. Brown also reported taking to the Freeman Clinic, Dallas for examination and treatment the following: Marches Lanningham, Alven Lanningham, Robert Lee Poulter and Ray Steele.

Mormon Youth Will Face Own Problems

SALT LAKE CITY, June 9.—Youth will tackle its own problems here when the young people of the Latter-day Saints church hold their annual convention Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Some 3,000 leaders in the church young men's and young women's mutual improvement associations in the United States, Mexico and Canada will attend.

Purpose of the assembly, said George Q. Morris, general superintendent of the Young Men's Association, is to encourage and inspire the youth leaders—and through them some 160,000 young people in the church—and thousands of their non-Mormon friends—to lead cleaner and more spiritual lives.

Henry Picard Takes Early Lead Denver

DENVER, June 9.—(AP)—Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., one of the prime professional golfers, emerged from the early scoring wreckage of the national open golf championship today to take the first round lead with a 70, one under par for the Cherry Hills course.

While thunder-clouds boomed overhead, obscuring the snow-capped vista of the Rockies, Picard boomed over the rugged incoming nine in 34 strokes, two under par. He bagged two birdies in a stretch of four holes, the 11th to the 14th. With a chance to crack 70 by getting his par four on the famous finishing "lake hole" the tall professional over-shot the green and lost a stroke.

DRANE COMMENDED BY RESOLUTION FOR GREAT GENEROSITY

THE CORSICANA LIONS CLUB TAKE OFFICIAL NOTICE OF GIFTS TO CHARITY

At Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Lions Club of Corsicana, Dr. W. H. Drane was commended by resolution for his creation of the Navarro Community Foundation and endowment of $800,000, and a committee made up of Dr. L. E. Kelton, Sr., W. H. Norwood and John P. Garlity was appointed to draw up the resolutions. The committee today mailed a copy of the resolutions to Mr. Drane, and also furnished another copy for publication.

Whereas, it has come to the notice of the Lions Club of Corsicana, through the columns of the Daily Sun of May 30, 1938, that Mr. W. H. Drane has given his entire fortune of more than $800,000 to a fund known as the Navarro County Foundation and, whereas, this money and investments have been placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be used as they deem best for the advancement of the citizens of our county along educational, religious, charity and other lines of progress and, whereas, we know that in the past, it has been Mr. Drane's endeavor to assist in all public enterprises, namely: Advancement of religious, educational and industrial progress; Advancement of better public building; Advancement of sanitary and utility conditions leading to better homes and better health; Advancement of scientific and agricultural progress; Advancement of better stock raising; Advancement of better transportation; Advancement of moral and spiritual guidance of young people through the function of Y.M.C.A. and church, and many other ways too numerous to mention:

Therefore, be it resolved by the Corsicana Lions Club here assembled, that we desire to extend to Mr. Drane our sincere appreciation and heartfelt thanks for his unbounded generosity in appropriating this magnificent gift. All through the years to come this gift will continue to be a blessing and benefaction to the citizens of Navarro county, citizenship of which Mr. Drane has built for Eternity.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be mailed to Mr. Drane, a copy filed with the minutes of the Lions Club, and a copy sent to the daily press.

L. E. KELTON,
W. H. NORWOOD,
JOHN P. GARLITY,
Committee.

W. J. ROCHELLE, JR. RECEIVED HIS B. A. DEGREE WEDNESDAY

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—(Spl.)—William J. Rochelle, Jr., formerly of Corsicana, was graduated from The George Washington University with the degree of bachelor of arts from Columbia College, at the university's 117th annual commencement on Wednesday, June 8.

The commencement exercises took place at 8 o'clock in the evening in Constitution Hall. Degrees and certificates were granted to approximately 700 graduates at that time. Dr. Cloyd H. Marvin, president of the university, presented each graduate with a diploma as evidence of the degree conferred.

Mr. Rochelle has been an outstanding member of the student body and has served during the past year as president of the student council. He was a leader in varsity debate and member of Delta Sigma Rho, honorary debating fraternity. He also was active in athletics and was a member of the interfraternity council. His social fraternity was Kappa Sigma, and he was elected to Gate and Key and Steel Gauntlet honor societies.

Elizabeth Garrett and W. H. Brown Are Married in Dallas

The following account of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Garrett, a former Corsicana girl, who has made her home in Washington, D. C. and in Dallas since her graduation from the Corsicana high school will be of interest to her many Corsicana friends of the family. The wedding Wednesday climaxed a number of lovely preliminary courtesies extended her in Dallas.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Garrett of Dallas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Garrett of Corsicana, to William H. Brown of Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Brown of Denton, took place at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Roland Lynn in Preston Hollow.

Dr. R. J. Holmes of the Highland Baptist church performed the wedding ceremony before the mantel, which was banked with palms and ferns. White cathedral veils burned in candelabra and white flowers in Grecian urns were placed on each side of the altar.

Josh Williams sang the pre-nuptial music accompanied by Lois Mae Cengangel. Miss Allen of Fort Worth played the wedding music.

Wears White Satin.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown fashioned on princess lines with a long train. Her veil of bridal illusion was attached to a halo with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Roland Lynn attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore an aqua chiffon frock and carried a bouquet of shaded orchids.

Miss Dollie Lauderdale, Miss Eloise Groce and Mrs. A. E. Kucera were bridesmaids. They wore white net dresses trimmed with blue ribbons and their flowers were rainbow bouquets.

Kate Moore and Nancy Warlick were junior bridesmaids. Their frocks were aqua net trimmed with white ribbon and they carried nosegays of rainbow flowers.

J. D. Brown attended his brother as best man and the ushers were Jim Bray, Hal Adams, Leslie Hill, Malory Collins, Truman Reader and Dr. Roland Lynn.

To Visit Mexico City.
Mrs. Louise Kizer presided at the ringed wedding cake at the reception following the ceremony. Mrs. Kenton Chickering served punch and Mrs. Leslie Hill had charge of the bride's book.

Others in the party were Miss Blonda Bostick, Mrs. Bedford Geron, Miss Cile Moore, Miss Kay Latham and Mrs. Paul Hutchinson.

After a wedding trip to Mexico the couple will make their home at 3015 Westminister. Mrs. Brown selected a navy suit with a dusty pink jacket with navy blue accessories for her traveling costume.

The bride is a former student of George Washington University in Washington, D. C., the Henry Kaspar School of Music and Southern Methodist University. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

Mr. Brown attended North Texas State Teachers' College and is a member of the Talon Club.

CORSICANA, TEX., JUNE 10, 1938

COMING IMPROVEMENT.

Frederick J. Heaslip, head of a business survey committee, tells the National Association of purchasing agents in New York that many executives believe the low point has been reached. Inventories are down, especially in factory supplies, and that is a good sign.

Most business men seem to take the attitude of the June issue of the magazine Banking, official publication of the American Bankers Association. The editor, basing his statements "more on circumstances than evidence," tells of a general expectation that business will improve "late this year."

It is reassuring, at least, to see that few business men seem to think the bottom is going to drop out of everything this year.

And as for guesses regarding the next upturn, why not this summer? True, it is contrary to custom. Yet twice in recent years business has grown surprisingly better during what nearly everybody regards as "the dull season." There doesn't seem to be any economic law against it.

FLEET WILL MOVE

An interesting item in the recent news has been the announcement at Washington that "the entire fleet will be moved from the Pacific to the Atlantic next year for maneuvers, and to visit the New York world's fair."

The reasons given are plausible. The fleet is obliged to serve two oceans. It has been concentrated in the Pacific this year and has held its annual maneuvers there. Turn about is fair play, for ships and mariners.

There might be a diplomatic reason, however, for making the announcement at this time. It will tend to reassure Japan, which has been worried about our naval superiority and activity in the Pacific.

But what about China and the need of keeping watch on the situation there? Does the government expect the Asiatic crisis to be over by next summer?

NO TRAFFIC TRAPS

The idea is spreading that traffic regulation is not a competitive game between drivers and policemen, but a means of promoting safety. In line with that purpose, the police in most cities now try to gain the confidence and co-operation of motorists. The rule has been adopted in various communities that motorcycle cops are not to hide behind shrubbery or in shadows or behind buildings in order to catch unwary speeders or violators of other rules. The cop is to wait in plain sight, preventing traffic violations by his presence and ready to give assistance when needed.

Fair play and co-operation should strengthen obedience to law. There's no fun in tempting fate and daring a cop who is not trying to catch you off-guard for the sake of a nice fee.

BLOCKED GRAIN SALES.

Europe has a short grain crop. America has a huge crop. It ought to mean as satisfactory a situation as that of Jack Sprat and his wife, but it doesn't.

The trouble is that some of the European countries desperately in need of our grain have not the means to purchase it. The only method by which they could manage large grain purchases here would be on a barter basis. This is the way Italy and Germany al-

MODERN MUSIC

Time was that music seemed to be a balm for savage cares and fears;
A sunset on a storm tossed sea;
The smile that follows sorrow's tears.
But now the clarinet refrain
Voices exorcising pain.

Once in the dear dim long ago,
By the mere magic of a chord
Men in the deepest depths of woe
Found faith and courage both restored.
But now the wailing saxophone
Squeals greater anguish than their own.

Time was the troubled soul could find
In some remembered bit of song
Solace and strength and peace of mind
Against the world's supremest wrong.
But now the blatant trumpet screams
That gall is bitterer than it seems.

CHANGING OCCUPATIONS

Forestry is becoming economically important in Georgia. According to Frank Heyward, state forester, many hard-up cotton growers have turned from cotton to pine groves. Nearly 200 landowners have already put 724,674 acres in pine. The movement is growing.

The trees grow rapidly and require little care. It will not be many years before the harvesting will begin. The wood may be sold for several purposes, including the manufacture of cellulose products like paper and rayon.

In the meantime, there is good grazing for beef cattle in these woods.

Some of the ex-cotton farmers have already had cash returns from their cattle.

Such a transition to a new occupation from an over-manned industry or over-produced agricultural crop is possible, but takes time and initiative. Sometimes, too, it requires the temporary outside help of state or federal government. The process often calls for vocational or other special education. It is slower and more difficult in some cases than others. Yet, it is in the making of these adjustments, turning to new enterprises, opening new opportunities, developing new industries, that the ultimate solution of our unemployment and relief problems lies.

PRESS FREEDOM IN BRAZIL

A daily newspaper of Rio de Janeiro is setting an example which it hopes will spread and become a movement for closer trade and cultural relations between Brazil and the United States. Beginning on July 4, the paper will publish 24 special editions dealing with social and economic affairs here.

Leading Americans are being asked to contribute articles on democracy, cultural institutions in this country, and trade possibilities. During the year the Brazilian Press Association plans to entertain a number of American newspaper men in connection with the dedication of its new building in Rio.

This is something new in a supposedly dictator-ruled country. Apparently the Brazilian Press Association and the editors of the individual newspaper of Rio de Janeiro are free to start such a movement. They not only can get out special editions explaining the ways of the northern democracy to their readers but can even invite outsiders to contribute to them.

It is impossible to imagine such a situation in certain countries in Europe. The fact that it exists under Vargas certainly gives a New World tone to his brand of alleged fascism.

ready are handling much of their foreign trade with South America countries. But it doesn't take very well in the United States.

According to the good old theory of supply and demand, this surplus grain in a few countries ought to flow naturally, and with profit to all concerned, into the countries that lack grain. Something has blocked the flow, however, and the well-being of many people and many countries depends on whether we are smart enough to break up the trade jam.

HANDS ACROSS THE SEAWAY?CORPORATE LICENSES

There has been comparatively little comment on the measure sponsored by Senators Borah and O'Mahoney, for federal licensing of business corporations doing interstate business—perhaps because most people have not taken it very seriously. But it is far from being a mere theoretical proposal. An American Institute of Public Opinion poll indicates that 57 per cent of the people favor it.

On its face, this may seem to be a rather mild affair, though covering a good deal of ground. It would not be federal incorporation. The states would still incorporate business as they do now. But every corporation doing interstate business would have to register with the federal government, and would then be subject to certain rules prescribed by it. The government at least would have a check on corporate practices and operations, in a way not now possible. Once established, a doubtless federal authority would be strengthened in the direction of greater uniformity and correction of various abuses permitted by the present system of state incorporation.

In some ways such tightening up looks reasonable and useful. It is well known that great abuses and much public loss have resulted from the irresponsible chartering of corporations in certain states, with authority to operate unchecked throughout the whole 48 states. It is obviously felt by many people that business concerns operating on a national scale had better be doing it under the direct jurisdiction of the national government. But there will be a big argument before that is done.

GOODS FOR GOODS

The manager of the foreign trade department of the Chase National Bank made some straightforward observations to a luncheon group during Foreign Trade Week.

The days of the balancing of trade with foreign loans may not be ended, but they have been "at least postponed," he said. Therefore, the quickest way to stimulate the purchase of American goods abroad is for Americans to buy generously in other countries. Foreign trade must be a two-way activity. Real world commerce is a crying need today, but it can be achieved only by actual buying of goods among nations.

These are not newly discovered truths. But they have not always been widely understood or applied in the United States. We have been firmly resolved that the other fellow must buy more of our goods than he sells to us. Before the World War, we were a debtor nation. Since the war, we have become a creditor nation, which has changed our foreign trade situation completely. It is a hopeful sign that many people of authority and influence state the situation so clearly these days.

CCC Musical Group To Appear Thursday

The string ensemble and male chorus of the local CCC camp is to give a program at 8 o'clock Thursday evening in the Salvation Army Citadel, to which the public is invited. The ensemble and male chorus is a unit of the Federal Music Project, and directed by Robert Keys.

Cream Supper

Everybody invited to a cream supper at Long Prairie church, Friday night, June 10. All candidates invited, and can make a speech, for announcement either. Supper for benefit of the Methodist church.

Corsicana Will Be Represented Safety Sessions

Corsicana will be represented by a large delegation at the statewide Traffic Safety convention in Fort Worth, June 15. It was decided at a meeting Monday of the public safety and transportation committee of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce.

The convention will be held in the Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium. A huge parade, headed by 300 State Highway patrolmen, will be staged prior to the convention, while floats, etc., representing many cities and communities will be entered.

The purpose of the convention is to get cities and communities to adopt safety measures in conformity with the National and state regulations now in force and to set up safety organizations like those of the National Safety Council. Chairman J. W. McCammon stated following the meeting.

A bus for conveying a part of the band was furnished through arrangements by the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce while private conveyance carried the remainder of the musical organization.

Corsicana Hi-Band Goes Jacksonville

Corsicana High School band, under the direction of Joel C. Trimble, band director, left Tuesday morning to participate in the Tomato Festival at Jacksonville.

Miss Christine Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Jackson, is the Corsicana duchess at the festival.

A bus for conveying a part of the band was furnished through arrangements by the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce while private conveyance carried the remainder of the musical organization.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR DISTRICT MEET DOCTORS ON JULY 12

Plans for the one-day meeting of the Central Texas District Medical Society at the Corsicana Country club July 12, were discussed and turned over to a special committee at the regular monthly meeting of the Navarro County Medical Society Monday evening at the city hall.

The Central Texas district, comprises 12 counties, and more than 100 doctors and their wives are expected to attend the meeting.

Dr. Will Miller, Dr. Homer B. Jester and Dr. Leslie Kelton, Jr., were appointed as the local committee in charge. Dr. R. K. Harlan of Temple is secretary of the society and will have charge of the program arrangements.

Dr. R. C. Curtis, delegate to the State Medical Society meeting in Galveston early in May, reported on the meeting and Dr. Fred W. Horn of Wortham, gave a paper upon the subject "The Treatment of Abdominal Ascites and Edema."

The doctors reiterated their previous resolution and recommendation urging parents to have their children vaccinated before entering school in September.

Many Courtesies to Dallas Visitor At Kerens During Week

KERENS, June 7.—(Sp.)—Miss Helena Underwood, of Dallas, who has been the house guest of Miss Betty Belvin Westbrook this past week, was the recipient of a number of social courtesies, among which were a swimming party at the T. P. and L. lake in Trinidad, Thursday afternoon, given by Mrs. E. M. Westbrook, mother of the hostess, followed by an alfresco supper in the Westbrook yard; a bicycle ride, and luncheon Friday given by Miss Carolyn Hulan; a formal dance Friday evening at "Greys Ace," at the Kerens city like, at which Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Westbrook, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Grey, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Quate were chaperones.

The receiving line for the dance was composed of Miss Westbrook, Miss Underwood and Misses Patricia and Peggy Richards of Atlanta. Mrs. Westbrook served ice cream punch and cookies throughout the evening. Music for the dancing was furnished by a "keel-odion" at a late hour the ice cream sandwiches were served.

Among the out of town guests for this delightful affair were, John David King of Dallas, and Joe Daniel, Jr. of Corsicana.

Saturday afternoon the hostess and her mother entertained with a picture show party at the Palace theater in Corsicana, after which, Miss Mary Jane Daniel was hostess for a twilight supper on the obelisk terrace at her home.

Concluding the week's activities, Miss Westbrook had as luncheon guests, Sunday, the honoree, Miss Margaret Westbrook, Miss Carolyn Hulan, and Miss Virginia Seale of Denison.

Reunion Enjoyed By Coley Family

A reunion of the Coley family was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Coley near Corsicana. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Knight and children, Clara, Gladys, Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Richards and two children; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bolen and children, Edna, George, W. M., Bob, Barbara Jean, and Don; Mr. and Mrs. William Murry and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Ganze, all of Purdon; Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Coley and children, Truman, Charles, Dole, Howard, Newton, and Jean.

Dinner was served in picnic style, and following the meal everyone joined in singing a number of the old hymns.

Scales Break Down. Breaking of the scales of weights and measures operative of the highway patrol Monday night proved "a break" for nine trucks stopped here last night for weighing for overloading. Three had been weighed when the scales became out of order and the others were allowed to proceed, it was learned Tuesday.

Adding Years of Health and Beauty
At forty our grandmothers were usually prematurely old and worn.
More often than not, a large family of children used up every ounce of energy, and seldom did you find a mother who was anything but a "home body." Women in those days were more than middle-aged at thirty-five and forty.
During these last two decades health education, proper diet, scientific care before, during and after child-birth, moral, sensible and balanced living, have done wonders for the average woman, in adding years of health and beauty to her life.
Women at thirty-five now are at their best—they retain their youth, beauty, interest in life and sports, and are far more companionable mothers, wives and friends.
Yearly examinations and following the Doctor's advice, will add more happy, healthy years to the life of modern women and men.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST DIRTY REST ROOMS GETTING RESULTS

STATE HEALTH DEPARTMENT CONTINUES SERVE NOTICE TO CLEAN UP

AUSTIN, June 9.—(Sp.)—"The State Health Department's three-month old campaign against filthy rest rooms over the state has been marked by splendid co-operation from the retail business establishments involved, the public at large, and the press. Our department is so firmly convinced that filthy rest rooms are a major public health hazard that the department's sanitary inspectors are checking rest rooms as carefully as they do other violations of sanitary regulations," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"We have served notice on all retail establishments in Texas that they must clean up their rest rooms and continue to keep them clean under penalty of violating the state food and drug law, article 695 which carries a fine of no less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars."

"Our sanitary inspectors have been notified to assess this fine whenever they find rest rooms maintained without adequate sanitation. The public and business establishments have been adequately warned. Any subsequent violations will be dealt with through local channels."

"We want the public to co-operate with us in this campaign. Such filthy conditions as heretofore have been prevalent over the state will never again be tolerated. When the public finds a rest room that is unsanitary, whether it be in a cafe, tavern, filling station, retail establishment or bus station, they will be doing their community a favor if they transmit this information directly to the state health department, Austin, so the necessary steps can be taken."

"Disease breeds in unsanitary rest rooms and is spread from one person to another, indiscriminately. For such conditions, facilities should be available for washing the hands; toilets must be sanitary and kept that way. The rest room that does not meet these minimum requirements is a reflection on the establishment it serves and should be so interpreted."

POLICY HOLDERS EXPECTED TO SAVE TWO MILLION AS REDUCED INSURANCE RATES START JUNE 1

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL
AUSTIN, June 9.—(P)—Policy holders are expected to benefit nearly $2,000,000 a year through reduced rates on fire, theft and windstorm automobile insurance effective June 1.

The largest reductions in windstorm rates will be received in 27 coast counties where losses were not as great as insurance companies had figured. It is said the reductions were not seriously opposed by the companies, although they put up a show of opposition, for the reason they have more money for investment than they know what to do with.

It is common talk among insurance men, especially life insurance representatives, that earnings and surplus investment funds make rate reductions advisable. Some fear the legislature may glance over insurance company books at the next session and decide to boost taxes.

The legislature may be urged to broaden the aid in which insurance companies are allowed to invest their money.

Interesting Corsicana Facts
In announcing that C. V. Terrell, chairman of the railroad commission, would open his campaign for re-election at Corsicana, Terrell's publicity representative unearthed some interesting facts to show the development of the Texas oil industry.

Dr. W. B. Phillips as reporting in a survey made in 1901 for the University of Texas that "exceptional" gas pressure of 200 pounds per square inch had been discovered in the new Corsicana field and that one Ben Harper had established a "new fast drilling record" of 1,000 feet in 34 hours.

Records of the railroad commission today disclosed gas pressure of 5,000 pounds to the square inch while drillers sometimes make 2,500 feet of hole in 24 hours.

A $1,000,000 refinery with an output of 1,500 barrels daily, built at Corsicana by J. S. Cullinan, was thought to be a monster enterprise; but Texas now has refineries with capacities of more than 100,000 barrels daily.

The commission supervises operations of 81,000 oil wells in 400 fields, 3,200 gas wells in 300 fields, 214 pipelines, 145 refineries and 37 carbon black plants.

New Reason Advanced.
The State Highway Commission, which each month receives a wide variety of requests for highway improvements, heard a new reason recently why an all weather road and a high water bridge was needed in a certain county.

An official of the county told the commissioners that because of the road and bridge he had been delayed four hours in starting a honeymoon trip.

Member Habits Vary.
Some members of the legislature are frequent visitors to Austin between sessions while others seldom are seen here.

Rep. Sam Hanne of Dallas is one of the latter. In Austin recently, he said it was the first time he had visited the capital since the special session last fall.

A number of legislators come to Austin for the oil prorator and highway hearings held each month. They also come to conduct business for constituents.

Still others are on committees which function between sessions. Candidates for the speaker's office have dropped in on the state house in recent months as they await about the state lining up votes.

Halting Waste Fires.
Marvin Hall, state fire insurance commissioner, says Texas millers think they have found a solution to the problem of waste fires.

Troubled by such fires, the management of a mill at Fort Worth suspected matches carried by employees and put out free safety matches having this inscription on the covers:

"Danger! Be careful of fire. Prevent fires!"

It was found, however, that the free matches resulted in waste. Now they are sold, four packages for a penny, and others are prohibited. Anyone found using a common match is brought to trial before a safety committee.

"This idea has spread throughout the state and to many other states with telling effect on mill fire losses and, consequently, on fire insurance rates," Hall said.

Credit For Rain.
It is not new for candidates to claim credit for rain, where rain is needed, but it is a bit unusual for the claims to get printed.

Jerry Sadler of Longview, running for the railroad commission, had this good fortune recently.

A Claude newspaper said needed rains seemed to follow Sadler across West Texas, his arrival in Pecos, Lubbock and Amarillo being "followed within a few hours by rainfall of more or less great value to the farmers and business people of the Panhandle-Plains."

Counter-Attack Launched on Nazi Propaganda Drive

PARIS.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Premier Edouard Daladier's government has launched a counter offensive against what is described as a large-scale Nazi propaganda campaign in Alsace-Lorraine.

The activity of German agents in the provinces recovered by France as a result of the world war has impressed the government so seriously that Vice Premier Camille Chautemps has been assigned to Alsatian affairs exclusively.

Early this spring Joseph Paul-Boncour, a foreign minister, told the chamber of deputies foreign affairs committee that Nazi agents were increasing their attempts to turn the German-speaking citizens of Alsace-Lorraine against France.

He declared the provinces were "full of Hitlerian intrigues" calculated to convince Alsatians they must return to German rule.

After the Saar plebiscite, January 15, 1935, Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler solemnly proclaimed that return of the territory to Germany marked the end of Nazi territorial demands in France, but French officials charge that Prussian-born Hermann Bickler, chief of the autonomist party in Alsace-Lorraine, is seeking autonomy only to return the provinces to Germany.

Oklahoma Woman Is Best Country Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 8.—(P)—A farm woman with four sons, who wrote that the bluebirds are "settled in the same old corner post in the orchard that they have used for the last several summers" today was named the best country newspaper correspondent of 1938.

Mrs. Edna Eaton Wilson, of Ripley, Okla., who writes for the Stillwater, Okla., Weekly Gazette, will receive $500, and an expense-paid trip to New York, Washington and White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where she will be a guest at the convention of the National Editorial Association.

The award was announced by Wheeler McMillen, editorial director of the County Home Magazine which sponsors the annual contest.

Mrs. Wilson said her family was "not so much surprised as they were that time my rain bread was the blue ribbon at the Payne County Fair."

She helps run a 270 acre dairy farm.

Her family went to Oklahoma in 1889 to homestead, and she formerly taught school in the Lone Jack district of Pawnee county.

The second award, $200, went to Mrs. Blanche Pease, who writes for the Atkinson, Neb., Graphic.

Oils wife, editor of the Stillwater Gazette, said Mrs. Wilson's copy doesn't have to be penciled.

"Claude Todd," she wrote, "is the proud owner of a new colt, foaled by his black pony, Bess, Monday. The colt, which is half Percheron, measured 28 1/2 inches to the top of the withers, and is strong and healthy."

Dress-Up Program American Cotton Now Being Planned

WASHINGTON, June 9.—(P)—Uncle Sam may spend $100,000 or more this year in applying the arts of salesmanship to cotton the nation's leading agricultural export product.

The money would be used to "dress up" the American bale of cotton so that it might stand on a par in appearance with cotton of competing countries in the world markets.

Plans for the dressing-up program are being prepared by the agriculture department largely as a result of a report of its foreign cotton market specialist, P. K. Norris, that the American bale is a "disgrace" in appearance.

Norris cited letters from foreign spinners saying they were turning more and more to Brazilian, Egyptian, Indian and other foreign cottons largely because of a neater and more uniform bale. The Egyptian bale is considered the model among all bales, Norris said.

OLD AGE BENEFITS ARE NOT SUBJECT TO INCOME TAXES

WASHINGTON, June 18.—(P)—The internal revenue bureau ruled today that payments of old age benefits by the social security board to persons reaching the age of 65 are not subject to income taxes.

At the present time persons reaching 65, who have paid social security taxes, are given lump sum settlements equal to 31-2 per cent of the amount of wages they received from January 1, 1937, until their 65th birthday. Starting in 1942, monthly payments will be substituted for the lump sum settlements.

TEXAS PRODUCERS
SEE END SATURDAY
SHUTDOWNS JULY 1
EXPECT IMPROVED BUSINESS TO RESTORE FLOW TO SIX-DAY BASIS

By HARRELL E. LEE
AUSTIN, June 8.—(AP)—Oil producers in Texas, which normally accounts for about 40 per cent of the nation's output, believed today they could see the end of the statewide Saturday shutdowns instituted by the state railroad commission nearly a month ago as an emergency measure.

The future of oil production was definitely interwoven with that of business generally but it was hoped the large government spending program approved by congress would at least arrest the business recession and a sustained upturn perhaps was near at hand.

Texas, which took the lead in drastic moves to eliminate the huge surplus in gasoline stocks, has been on a five-day-a-week crude producing basis since the second week in May. Indications were that the Saturday closings, inaugurated in January and originally intended to last only a month or two would be continued indefinitely but the Saturday shutdowns would be lifted July 1.

Crude stocks were substantially lower than at the same time a year ago and the gasoline oversupply had been diminishing somewhat although the rate of improvement as the industry hoped for.

National Flow Lower
The national daily production of crude oil was nearly half a million barrels lower than in June, 1937.

A new proration plan intended to reduce drilling became effective in this state at the beginning of the month. Under it, the state's allowable will increase from the first to the last of each month with new well completions as in the past. The allowable of each field will be cut at the sixtieth of the month to what it was at the beginning of the month regardless of the number of producers completed in the interim.

The gasoline market in East Texas and certain other areas was reported stronger as a consequence of the long-maintained strict curb on crude production. Many engineers believed the two-day shutdowns would further check the decline in bottom-hole pressure in the huge East Texas field. The average daily output there was less than 400,000 barrels whereas the state average between 425,000 and 450,000 barrels per day can be produced without physical waste.

The importance to Texas of maintaining prosperity in the oil industry is emphasized by the Texas Midcontinent oil and gas association. It shows that 45,000,000 barrels of income are scattered through all except 14 of the state's 254 counties are under lease for oil and gas development even though production so far has been found in only 130 counties.

DEATH SENTENCE
UPHELD WEDNESDAY
BY APPEALS COURT

AUSTIN, June 8.—(AP)—The court of criminal appeals today agreed with a district court jury that Bennie Randall, 25-year-old wood cutter, must die in the electric chair for raping a 77-year-old Colorado county woman last January 21.

The single question presented in the appeal was sufficiency of the evidence and the appellate court said the evidence, which included a signed statement by Randall, supported the conviction.

The crime occurred at night on the aged woman's farm where she lived alone.

The court also affirmed a 10-year sentence assessed Reyes Gonzales for conviction of the slaying of Eusebio Gonzales in Wilbarger county, May 23, 1937. The body was found in a ditch near a feed mill and had been beaten with a piece of iron and cut with a knife.

It denied a rehearing for Collan H. Morgan of El Paso whose death sentence previously was affirmed. He was convicted of slaying his wife, Eleanor, by strangling her, Jan. 20, 1937.

NEW VARIETY RUST-RESISTANT
WHEAT DEVELOPED AS DEFENSE
AGAINST GRAIN FIELD SCOURGE

CHICAGO, June 8.—(AP)—Rust, dark hued scourge of the grain fields, will encounter the best defense ever prepared by growers if it spreads into the spring wheat belt this year, crop experts said today.

The newest bulwark against the grain farmer's relentless enemy has been fashioned in the agronomists' laboratories. It is the latest variety of rust resisting wheat, known as "Thatcher."

For years farmers have been fighting the microscopic parasites, fungi which attack with the wind through golden wheat fields, turning them to a sickly brown. They have had little success. Rust destroyed 200,000,000 bushels in the 1904 and 1916 ravages, and 100,000,000 bushels in 1935. The scourge, most prevalent during hot, humid weather, was visited upon many fields last year.

The new Thatcher wheat which has been evolved from co-operative researches in plant pathology and breeding has been sown in the spring wheat belt of Minnesota, the Dakotas and Canada this year.

Three years ago, when rust did heavy damage, very little Thatcher had been planted, said H. C. Donovon, Chicago crop authority. Last year there was much Thatcher in the Red River Valley and Donovon said he noticed that its thicker skinned shaftward off rust spores satisfactorily.

The original model will cost upwards of $3,000,000 four times as much as the army's 32-ton "super" flying fortress. Its weight may reach 50 tons, compared to the 41 1-2 ton Atlantic Clipper, the nation's largest ocean air transport, now being tested at Seattle.

After sheding details for more than a year, the navy disclosed some facts about the flying patrol boat in asking congress to double the $1,000,000 appropriated last year for its construction.

The navy's appropriations committee included the sum in the second deficiency bill introduced yesterday.

Rear Admiral Arthur B. Cook, chief of the Bureau of Naval Aviation, said the new plane "will be a very great and important advance over airplanes of the flying boat type now in existence and its potential naval value is extremely high."

Admiral Cook indicated its range would exceed considerably the 5,000-mile range needed for a nonstop round trip from San Francisco to Honolulu. The plane will be partially armored and will carry a crew of 10 to 14 men.

It is expected to be the forerunner of a squadron of 15 or more in the next few years. In lots of that number, Admiral Cook said, the unit cost would be about $1,000,000.

While the navy was building up its aircraft division, the army set out to strengthen its anti-aircraft defenses by doubling its time.

Funds in the $463,651,678 war department appropriation bill which went to the White House yesterday will make it possible to triple the number of three-inch rapid fire cannon now available for defense cities and troops.

For that purpose the measure includes almost $29,000,000 in cash and contract authorizations. With that the army hopes to remedy in two instead of four years an estimated $53,000,000 deficiency in protection against air raids.

Official estimates indicated that possibly 150 of the most modern guns will be obtained within the next year, aside from quantities of machine guns, searchlights, sound detectors and other equipment.

Less well armed against planes than most foreign powers, the army now has fewer than 60 big anti-aircraft guns, and all but a handful are obsolete.

Virtually all the guns will be mobile, mounted on special trucks designed to speed them to any threatened point.

Appropriations Current Congress Reach Highest Peak Peacetime History

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—Appropriations in the current congressional session will reach the highest peacetime peak in American history.

Figures prepared by the house appropriations committee on bills pending or already enacted showed today the total probably will be between $11,838,622,468 and $12,281,994,764.

The previous record, except for World War years, was $10,560,833,185 voted in 1936. That included $2,237,000,000 for payment of the soldiers' bonus. Congress appropriated $9,356,174,882 in 1937.

Two factors are responsible primarily for this year's increase: 1. The business recession compelled President Roosevelt to increase more than threefold his original recommendation of a billion dollars for relief of the unemployed.

2. The social security program has meant a billion-dollar addition to the government's appropriations since last year.

The legislators already have provided an extra $250,000,000 for relief to be expended by July 1. The relief and public works bill to help the needy after the date carried $2,917,950,000 in out-right appropriations as passed by the senate, but the final figure will be determined by a senate-house committee. Here are the amounts appropriated at this session: Agriculture department, $758,572,820; District of Columbia, $47,255,155; Independent agencies, $1,423,098,240; Interior department, $129,678,460; congressional establishment, $21,663,783; Navy department, $546,866,494; State, Justice, Commerce, labor departments, $330,589,735; Treasury department, $1,403,683,526; Military, $459,401,254; Civil Functions of war debt, $196,902,867; first deficiency, $28,089,000; relief, deficiency, $299,000,000; Relief-Public Works (a) $2,917,950,000; Second deficiency (b) $214,332,729; permanent appropriations $2,718,772,257; Re-appropriations (c) $882,473,375; miscellaneous $92,650,000; Total, $12,281,994,764 (d).

(a) Passed by senate. (b) As approved by house appropriations committee. (c) As estimated by Rep. Taber. These consist of re-appropriations of money previously advanced by congress but not yet spent. (d) Should congress finally accept the house totals on the three bills still not enacted—agriculture, relief and public works, and second deficiency—the total would be $11,838,622,468.

JAPAN IS NOW MAIN BUYER WAR
SUPPLIES FROM UNITED STATES
WITH CHINA, BRAZIL ALSO-RANS

WASHINGTON, June 7.—(AP)—Japan has become the United States' best customer for war supplies.

The state department published figures today showing that Japan had passed China during the last six months, although Brazil led all other nations in May alone, when she bought $1,494,824 worth of arms and ammunition. Japan spent $1,334,808 to rank second in May.

Exports of war supplies to China and Japan in the six months exceeded those for the entire previous fiscal year, which, for the national munitions control board, December 1.

From last December 1 to June 1, Japan spent $6,091,090 for war equipment in the United States, compared with China's purchases of $5,819,739 worth. Their combined total was $10,112,152 in the previous year.

Exports of war materials to all nations during the six months totaled $31,000,054, compared with $60,704,808 for all of 1937. Aircraft and parts, including commercial planes form the largest category of exports under control of the munitions board.

Soviet Russia declined sharply as an arms customer. She was a leading buyer last year, importing $12,446,025 in war equipment.

The state department meanwhile sought further information on a new British suggestion that the United States participate in an investigation of aerial attacks in Spain.

Secretary Hull conferred with division chiefs, but declined to say what inference might be drawn from the consideration given the proposal. Previous invitations of that nature have been declined quickly.

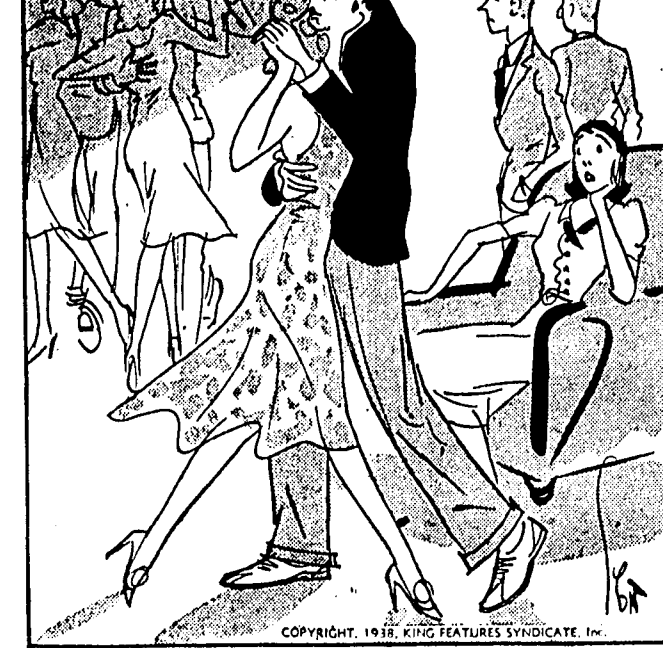

Hopkins said that "five years is a short time for so enormous a job." "But we are going forward, not backward," he concluded.

Rev. B. B. Byus, pastor of the Eleventh Avenue Methodist church was the speaker at Thursday's luncheon meeting of the Civitan club at the Navarro hotel. At a lengthy business session following the principal address, Lloyd K. Carraway was voted a delegate to the Civitan International convention in the near future in Cincinnati and the club voted to pay his entire expenses.

Robert Davidson, a former member of the club was a guest today. F. C. Paul and Tom Eady had charge of today's program.

Name Committees, President O. F. Allen appointed the following standing committees: Membership and extension, F. C. Paul, chairman; Ed Wendorf and F. A. Pierce. Finance, N. Suttle Roberts.

BARE SUBSISTENCE IN HOVELS
IN GREEN OREGON IS THE FATE OF REFUGEES OF DUST BOWL SECTOR

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7.—(AP)—Meager subsistence in hovels on the fringe of civilization have been the lot of scores of weary men, women and children who left the nation's dust bowls in dilapidated automobiles to seek a promised land in Oregon.

For every farmer resettled with money and land from the government, many others have drifted to the back roads, the Farm Security Administration said scratching out pitiful garden patches in the timber, working for subsistence in the fields and living in makeshift homes.

The records of the Farm Security Administration are filled with happy interviews from families who qualify in money, implements, stock and intelligence. For the majority of others, unheard of, there is no record, only desolation.

Deep in Oregon's rich farm, dairy and orchard region, a middle aged man with a tubercular wife, two sons and three daughters took refuge in a hovel in their flight from eastern Colorado. The environment shocked a hardened relief investigator.

The mother and father slept in a trailer more like a box-car. It teetered on its rusty jacks when the wind blew. Chickens wandered in and out of the flapping door, at home on a soiled, untidy bed or hopping from broken chair to grubby table.

Two boys of pre-school age slept on a bursting mattress in a packing box hut. The chickens had been there too. A flea-bitten collie slept on the boys' bed. The girls—one of them went to a distant high school in the country bus—had a shack a few yards up the slope. It was tidier.

Three goats provided milk. The only cow was dry. A few vegetable plants pushed through soil around fir stumps. A ragged, sturdy Kansas plains family had set up a half-tent, half-shack home on another hillside. From the canvas covered doorway they looked out upon fertile orchards and clover fields sweeping upward to the cool coastal mountains.

The father toiled on a seven-acre tract felling fir and hewing and sawing it into cordwood. His labor was the price of his tenancy. The fuel will be sold in town and the alim revenue may provide a crop among the stumps next season.

"It's green and cool here and there's not so much dust," said the mother. Two children, a boy and a girl, clung to her tattered skirts.

After the congressmen had struggled for 15 minutes with very little to show for their efforts, Representative Marvin Jones, chairman of the house agriculture committee, and referee of the contest, declared the event a draw.

The contest was arranged to help publicize milk month by raising the issue of who could get more milk from a cow—representatives from the far west or from the middle west.

"We think we obtained about the best milkers in congress," Sheppard said in appraising the teams.

Congressional aides having witnessed potato, oyster, champagne, cheese and now milking competition—wonder what's coming next. Almost anything, they predict, except adjournment.

Mr. Sheppard is Speaker. Mr. Paul introduced the sixth chapter of Deuteronomy "and He brought us out that He might bring us in." The speaker told of the Children of Israel being delivered from bondage in Egypt, and were wandering in the wilderness. He said there was one group among the children who had wanted to go back into Egyptian bondage, and had no ambition to move on with God, or to establish freedom for their successors.

A second group, Mr. Byus went on, wanted to stay in the wilderness, and were satisfied to neither move forward or backward, and were content with what they had found in the wilderness. He said there are men today, with apparently sound judgment who are satisfied to wander in the desert of doubt, because they have lost their God. "Suicide is all that is left for a man who has lost his God."

A third minority group, Mr. Byus said, is one that is content neither to go back nor to stay in the desert, but who will move forward with God at any price. "God still has something to say to us, and I believe He will continue to reveal Himself to us through the years, as He always has in the past. Let us be satisfied with nothing less than to move forward with God," he concluded.

FINANCIAL CRISIS
UTILITY REGULATION
APPARENTLY SOLVED

WARRANTS TO BE ISSUED
AGAINST TAXES DUE
FROM LONE STAR

AUSTIN, June 8.—(AP)—The crisis in finances of government agencies which regulate gas utility rates in Texas apparently passed today.

It was decided to issue warrants against tax money which has been tied up pending a suit by the Lone Star Gas company to test validity of the tax.

Possibility of a special session of the legislature to consider the situation faded. Governor James V. Allred indicated none would be held.

Even before the announcement by Attorney General William McCraw and Comptroller George H. Sheppard that warrants would be issued against tax funds held in suspending Governor Allred said that "at this time I contemplate no session this fall."

"It is my opinion the comptroller of public accounts is not only authorized," said McCraw, "but is required to issue warrants upon properly audited claims for the attorney general's department and the gas utilities division of the railroad commission covering their activities in enforcing the provisions of articles 6050 and 6065 inclusive, even though monies belonging to such funds are now held in against tax funds held in suspending Governor Allred said that "at this time I contemplate no session this fall."

McCraw further said the case of the Arkansas-Louisiana gas company, scheduled to come up in Travis county district court Monday, in which the validity of the tax is attacked, would be pressed vigorously.

"By getting an early trial of this case," he said, "we will be able to clarify the issues in this matter speedily, and perhaps force the Lone Star to release the funds now tied up by their payment under protest."

"If we win this case, as I expect to do, it is highly probable that other gas companies will not follow the Lone Star's unfortunate example of holding up our enforcement funds, and this will give us money with which to carry on the fight."

Talk of a special legislative session following a conference two days ago attended by the governor and representatives of the attorney general's department and the gas utilities division of the commission.

Governor Allred said he had called the conference to see if the Lone Star company representatives could be induced to withdraw their protest in connection with the use of the tax money.

The Lone Star people at that time stated, the governor said, that their protest was based on action of the railroad commission recently in extending their field of endeavor to exercise original jurisdiction in investigating gas rates in cities.

Fidelis Class of Kerens Entertained

KERENS, June 7.—(Sp.)—Mrs. H. W. Kofler, Mrs. James Taylor and Mrs. F. E. McCown entertained the Fidelis class of the First Baptist Sunday school last Thursday afternoon.

An interesting program was presented by Mrs. Eldredge McCord, leader, who chose for her subject, "Winged Words." The devotion was given by Mrs. Roy Clouton, able teacher of the class. Mrs. Ruth Barlow, guest speaker from the Presbyterian Sunday school, gave a delightful talk on "Poetry," using as her message theme, "Poetry as the Highest, Most Beautiful and Perfect Expression of Thought Allowed to man." Sixteen members were present.

The hostesses served a tea, sandwich and cookie plate during the social hour.

Governor Cancels Visit
AUSTIN, June 9.—(P)—Governor George H. Earle of Pennsylvania has cancelled a proposed Texas visit.

Governor James V. Allred said today the Keystone state executive had telephoned him officially business would keep him in Pennsylvania. He was to have been Allred's guest on a fishing trip and was scheduled to address a statewide traffic safety conference in Fort Worth, June 16.

Governor Earle notified the Texas governor he would urge observance of National Tomato Week in his state, directing attention particularly to consumption of Texas grown tomatoes.

Roosevelt Plans Extended Journey Early Next Month

WASHINGTON, June 9.—(AP)—The White House announced today that President Roosevelt will conditions permitted—would leave on a western trip July 7 and speak in Covington, Ky., July 8.

No details were announced. It was expected, however, that the President would speak from his train at the stop in Kentucky, where senate leader Barkley is being opposed for renomination in the democratic primary by Governor B. Chandler.

The President first will keep a long planned engagement the morning of July 8 at Marietta, Ohio, where he will speak in connection with the 150th anniversary of the northwest territory.

Tentative arrangements call for Mr. Roosevelt, on leaving Kentucky, to visit Tennessee, Oklahoma and Texas and California. He may make a stop or two between the last two states.

The president is expected to take a naval vessel on the west coast for a cruise down the coast and through the Panama Canal. He may get in some fishing on the northwest coast of South America.

Senator Barkley was the president's first caller today, talking over congressional adjournment prospects.

Bank Clearings Show Gain First Time Many Weeks
NEW YORK, June 9.—(AP)—Bank clearings in 22 leading cities for the week ended June 6 showed a gain for the first time in three weeks, Dun and Bradstreet reported today.

The break in the long decline also carried turnover sharply down by Memorial Day observance, and put the week at the highest point since December 22 last year.

Transactions in the latest period amounted to $5,887,185,000, an increase of 6 per cent over $5,524,000 in the same 1937 week and $1,839,180,000 over the revised total of the previous week.

VICTIM

in a detention cell at the FBI office in New York City. There he could be protected from violence, but Princeton received the news the case had been "broken" without any great aid. McKall's wife had left town and her whereabouts were not disclosed.

In addition to recovering the ransom, the authorities also found the shoebox in which Cash delivered the 1,500 bills of small denomination. It had been torn to pieces and hidden beneath a stone in a palmetto clump.

The location of the body, the ransom and the shoebox indicated the locale of the entire crime never ranged farther than two miles from the Cash home. This circumstance apparently strengthened authorities in their belief McKall carried it out by himself. He did not own an automobile.

Death Sentence Possible.
Worley took charge of the prosecution. He charged that no federal law apparently had been violated and the kidnaper should be tried in the state courts. Whether he is charged with murder or kidnapping, however, he would face a possible death sentence upon conviction.

Sheriff Coleman said McKall bore generally a good reputation for a cruise down the coast and through the Panama Canal. He may get in some fishing on the northwest coast of South America.

Several persons had been brought to FBI headquarters for questioning and later released. Among them were M. F. Braxton, unemployed Princeton carpenter, his son James, and his son-in-law, Ray Rayburn.

The serial numbers of the ransom bills were broadcast and the FBI offered to pay double the face value of the first 100 turned in. Rewards for apprehension of the kidnappers aggregated $50,000.

The "break" in the case came a few hours after the house in Washington had voted unanimously to appropriate $50,000 to finance the FBI investigation at the request of President Roosevelt.

Discovery of the Cash boy's body came exactly 10 days after the headless torso of kidnapped Peter Levine washed up on the rocky shore of Long Island Sound, not far from New Rochelle, N. Y.

The 12-year-old son of Murray Levine, New York attorney had disappeared February 24 on his way home from school. Subsequently his father received ransom notes, the first of which demanded $50,000. The father attempted unsuccessfully to negotiate with the abductors, and publicly offered to pay $30,000 for his son's return.

James Mizell, attendant at the Cash filling station, said McKall accompanied Cash and others to the home of a negro where ransom note was found the night of the kidnapping and was a member of various searching parties looking for the body.

Tells of McKall's Actions.
McKall said McKall as he approached the home of Aubrey Cash, where the first ransom note was found, as we were on our way to John Emanuel's home.

"He was walking and carrying a large flashlight, which he used to wave down the car. I saw Cash, which was just ahead of me, and he was riding. He got in with Ishmael and went on to the place where the note was found."

"I wasn't with him any more that night but I saw him in the crowd around the Cash home several times and I know he went around with the searchers for the body."

"He did not seem nervous when I last saw him," Mizell said. McKall rented Cash's rear apartment last winter, moving out in April.

Mrs. F. P. McCall, mother of the man held, declined to comment on the arrest of her son. She remained secluded at the home of a daughter, Mrs. C. T. Sheppard, in St. Augustine.

Mrs. Sheppard said her mother received first word of McKall's arrest through an early morning broadcast.

"I simply don't know what to think of it," she said.

WEARIN CONCEDES GILLETTE VICTORY IN IOWA PRIMARY

FORMER SENATOR DICKINSON HAS GOOD LEAD ON REPUBLICAN SLATE

DES MOINES, June 7.—(AP)—The purported drive of some nationally known new dealers against Iowa Senator Guy M. Gillette appeared to have been swamped under a deluge of democratic primary votes today.

Senator Gillette, who charged during the campaign that new deal strategist Tommy Corcoran was directing the drive against him from Washington, was polling more than 50 per cent of the votes as returns from Iowa's 2,447 precincts reached the three-fourths mark.

Representative Otha D. Wearin, endorsed by WPA Chief Harry L. Hopkins and my friend to James H. Hays, was receiving a little more than a quarter of the total and three other candidates shared the rest.

In a statement issued at his Cherokee, Ia., home, Senator Gillette said that the "left wing group" which started out to control the party nomination in 1940, a very great incentive to think things over.

The senator said, however, that "this is no occasion for personal resentment against any person."

"But I join in the resentment of the people of this state," he added. "We showed them the heart of genuine democracy is beating pretty firmly and strongly."

The senator, an anti-court plan democrat, said he believed his opposition to that measure was "the genius" of a plan to defeat him.

Wearin could not be reached for a statement. His family in Hastings, Ia., reported that he was not expected until late tonight. A campaign aide, J. Don Kierlin, of Des Moines, he congratulatory telegram to Gillette.

Former Senator L. J. Dickinson piled up a comfortable lead as the democratic total. Dickinson, Thurston in the republican senatorial primary. The vote from 1930 precincts gave Dickinson 117,008 and Thurston 90,127.

The democratic vote in 1,845 precincts gave: Gillette 63,531; Wearin 34,989; J. J. Meyers 14,058; Mrs. F. W. Richardson 7,839.

W. G. Byerhoff 4,470. The volume of republican voting continued substantially ahead of the democratic total. Dickinson and Thurston shared 207,135 votes, while the five democratic aspirants received 124,805 votes.

Wearin and Thurston, incumbent congressmen, ran poorly outside their own congressional districts.

If returns continued to follow the same trend it would not be necessary to refer the question of selecting a senatorial nominee to the Democratic state convention next month. Iowa law requires the leading candidate to poll at least 35 per cent of the vote cast for the office at stake. Otherwise nomination must be made by convention.

Supported By Hopkins.
Wearin's candidacy received national attention when WPA chief Harry L. Hopkins said: "I would vote for Wearin in his record if I lived in Iowa."

Returns were scanned closely by political leaders early today for evidences of specified trends attributable to the WPA vote. Iowa has 33,500 project workers on its WPA rolls.

All opponents of the senator sought nomination on the forms of 100 per cent support for the New Deal. Gillette expressed his "intense loyalty" to the president in the face of Wearin's claims of a White House blessing for his candidacy. The senator, however, had clear throughout the campaign that he was reserving the right to oppose New Deal measures if he thought them unwise.

Gillette voted against the NRA and the first draft of the 1938 AAA besides the court measure. He supported the reorganization bill, the public utility holding company bill and many other administration measures.

Award Contracts First Two Units Local Fair Plant

Contract for the first two units of the plant of the Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural Show was awarded Wednesday morning by the directors of the organization. The contract totaled $12,523.24 for the agricultural building and livestock building. Plans are now under way for the third unit, a stadium for rodeo, shows, and attractions of a similar nature, but this work will not be carried to completion until the first units are finished, according to an announcement from the directors.

E. E. Burkhardt was given the general contract at $11,189.07. Marvin Wallace was the successful bidder for the electrical work.

Work will start immediately. The contract calls for the completion of the two buildings in eight weeks.

The agricultural building will be 150 feet 7 inches by 60 feet 8 inches. The livestock will be 206 feet 8 inches by 60 feet. The agricultural plant will be located on a site recently acquired on Highway 31 several miles east of Corsicana.

LEGAL FIGHT OVER MEXICAN PROPERTY TO SUPREME COURT

MEXICO CITY, June 8.—(AP)—A $400,000,000 legal battle over Mexico's expropriation of foreign oil properties headed for the supreme court today after district court held the seizure legal.

District Judge Manuel Bartlett yesterday ruled the expropriation March 18 of the 17 American and British oil companies' properties was constitutional.

The decision denied the companies' petition for an injunction against the expropriation law of 1938 under which President Lázaro Cárdenas issued his decree, and upheld the law "insofar as it affected properties actually appraised to production, exploitation and distribution of oil."

The decree resulted in sharp diplomatic protests from Great Britain on behalf of Royal Dutch/Shell, one of the largest companies, and an severance of diplomatic relations by Mexico.

The Mexican government, replying to British protests, objected to diplomatic intervention before the oil companies had exhausted their legal recourse to the Mexican courts.

The expropriation was brought about when the companies refused to put into effect an arbitral board award, upheld by the supreme court, increasing wages and benefits for the 8,000 workers of the industry.

B. T. W. Van Hasselt of Ropal Dutch/Shell, said the decision yesterday was not "unexpected" and that it would be appealed within five days.

Casualty Totals

SHANGHAI, June 8.—(AP)—Casualties in recent fighting in Central China have raised the Japanese total to well past 500,000 and the Chinese to more than 1,000,000, foreign military authorities estimated today.

These estimates, based on undisclosed sources of information, said Japanese had killed 32,000 killed between April 1 and May 22, including fighting at Talerhwan, Suichow and Lint in Shantung Province.

INTERNATIONAL

The British-owned port of Gandia, Spain, was damaged and a dredge boat sunk yesterday in air attacks. Twelve foreign vessels have been sunk or damaged by air attacks in the past two weeks.

France also was aroused. Planes flew over French territory yesterday for the third time since Sunday despite French protests and reinforced aerial patrols on the border.

Halifax was believed to be waiting for reports from British diplomats in government and insurgent Spain before making a final decision on his contemplated action.

Several courses Britain may adopt to protect her merchant flag on Spain's Mediterranean coast have been mentioned but the most emphasized was that the foreign secretary would call a conference with other maritime powers.

The government was believed considering putting the question of the air attacks squarely before Premier Mussolini of Italy. There even were unofficial rumors she already had done so.

Aerial Bombing Again.
Aerial bombings in the Chinese-Japanese war which had brought American, British and French protests returned today after three days of relative calm.

Three railway stations near the South China metropolis were bombed by Japanese planes. No bombs were dropped on the Canton area for the first time since May 28, it was reported unofficially that Canton authorities in recent weeks executed 400 alleged traitors, including Formosans and Koreans.

A large quantity of arms and grenades was said to have been seized and an internal uprising was thwarted.

One theory advanced was that Japan's savage attacks were the result of the thwarted plot, though military authorities viewed the raids as an effort to paralyze the south China center of rail communication and halt the flow of munitions to the Chinese front.

Counsel For CIO In Federal Court Charges Officials

NEWARK, N. J., June 9.—(AP)—Counsel for the CIO and American Civil Liberties union charged in federal court today that Saturday's attack on Mr. Thomas, a Newark park was done "under the direction of the authorities of Jersey City," where Frank Hague has been mayor for a quarter century.

CIO-ACLU counsel Spaulding Frazier told Judge William Clark that the attack on "Thomas" was through the instrumentality of William J. Egan, assistant attorney general and former democratic Newark city commissioner.

There was a meeting of persons on Saturday June 4 in Egan's office for the purpose of fomenting the attack on Mr. Thomas," Frazier charged.

"Our purpose" (in bringing in the Thomas episode), said Frazier, "is to show continuing proof of a conspiracy on the part of Jersey City authorities."

and neighboring railway stations today for the thirteenth consecutive day.

The raiders blasted three railway stations in the vicinity but dropped no bombs on the shattered south China metropolis, where intensive anti-aircraft fire greeted them.

The stations were Yingtak on the Canton-Hankow line, Sheklung on the Canton-Kowloon line that feeds China war supplies from the unblockaded British port of Hongkong and Shikwan.

The Sheklung soldiers brought their rifles into play when one of the planes flew low several times over Shikwan, the international settlement, but the firing was without effect. The pilots apparently suspected Chinese planes might be lurking about Canton to repel future attacks.

Where the war-depleted populace nervously scanned the skies for a continuation of the attacks which have dealt a staggering blow or more than 8,000 killed and wounded since May 28, it was reported unofficially that Canton authorities in recent weeks executed 400 alleged traitors, including Formosans and Koreans.

A large quantity of arms and grenades was said to have been seized and an internal uprising was thwarted.

FRENCH FLEET IN BEIRUT HARBOR AS PLEBISCITE NEAR

BEIRUT, Syria, June 9.—(AP)—The French Mediterranean fleet anchored today in Beirut harbor preparatory to combined war maneuvers with French troops and warplanes in disturbed Syria, which France governs under League of Nations mandate.

Arrival of the fleet, commanded by Vice Admiral Jean Aillal, coincided with tightening of martial law by French authorities in the Sanjak (state) of Alexandrette. The Sanjak, part of France's Syrian mandate, has been a source of French-Turkish friction.

A plebiscite will be held in Alexandrette, probably late next month, to determine whether the territory, which borders Turkey, should become Turkish or remain part of the new Syrian republic. Reports here said 30,000 Turkish troops still were massed on the frontier.

Woman's Auxiliary Black Hills Met

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Black Hills Baptist church met Monday afternoon at the church with 19 members present.

House called to order by our president, Mrs. Mack Shivers. Meeting was opened with prayer and song.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved. We then went in to the study of the first and second chapters of Acts, led by Mrs. Mack Shivers.

A committee was appointed to select a theme song and motto for the Auxiliary. We will meet on Saturday afternoon next, Monday afternoon to begin work on a friendship quilt. The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Rev. T. R. Vaught.—Reporter.

Beauty Diary

of Edna Kent Forbes

Hand lotions are so necessary that Miss Forbes is giving a number of suggestions about them in today's talk.

There are many tempting hand lotions, scented, tinted, and in attractive bottles. One does not mind seeing them around wherever there will be need for bathing the hands. They will be costly, too, but if you must economize in your outfit for beauty preparations, a hand lotion is one of the things you need to spend very much on, that is, if you are willing to go to a little extra trouble, and not be too impressed with the smart looking receptacles.

One excellent lotion is made from two ounces of glycerine, two ounces of rose water, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, and an ounce of witch hazel. Shake all these together, bottle, and keep some of it wherever you are in the habit of bathing the hands. If you do housework, a bottle of the lotion in the kitchen sink, so you will be sure to use the lotion after the work is completed. Another also will be needed in the bathroom. There is a fine honey and almond formula, I shall be glad to mail to any one, but the directions for making it, will take too much space for me to include it in this chat.

Dry table salt, dusted over the hands after bathing them, and while a bit moist, will cleanse, soften and act much like an astringent. After all the day's work is done, this salt rub is best, for after dinner in the evening and just before leaving the kitchen. It takes off all the rough spots, where the skin has rubbed about the nails after handling of vegetables, fruit, and other foods needed for cooking a meal.

Babe—There is nothing you can do, nor should do about reducing the size of your bust. It would be wrong to try anything for you, or boys too, you are growing more in one spot than in another, but all the body even out in no time at all.

Mrs. C. F. S.—I shall be glad to send you the calorie chart when you forward a stamped, self-addressed envelope for the mailing.

Mrs. Peg G.—Some persons are inclined to greater development in some parts of the body than in others, and they just have to make compromises to offset this. When your legs are too large for good balance of your figure, you should keep down to less weight all over, if that is possible. Fatty spots may be massaged but you would not have time nor inclination to give such doubt-attention to the whole lower part of your body. Reduce a trifle all over, and take whatever extra exercise you may to keep the muscles of your legs firm. Riding bicycle is fine for this.

E. G.—Enlarged pores and blemishes suddenly appearing on your skin would likely mean you are storing up poisonous matter in your system. Clear out your digestive tract, simplify your diet for a time, in fact, cleanse internally. Bathe all over every day since that relieves pores of the complexion from overwork. Use very cold water for final rinse to close pores and tone the skin.

If you have any beauty problems you cannot solve, write for Edna Kent Forbes, three beauty booklets: (1) "Fifteen Minutes a Day for Beauty," (2) "The Finger Points of Beauty," (3) "Eating and Bathing for Beauty." Send ten cents (in stamps) for EACH booklet to pay for mailing, to handle and envelope (s.a.s.e.). Address Edna Kent Forbes, c/o this paper.
